U. D. C.
The Seventeenth Annual Convention of the United Daughters of the Confederacy will be held in Little Rock, Arkansas, next Wednesday, November 9th. The Mary Custis Lee Chapter has appointed the following delegates: Miss Mary Lee Lloyd, Miss Mary E. Johnson, Mrs. Owen S. Willey, Mrs. C. C. Carlin and Miss Edna H. Alexander. Alternates: Mrs. James E. Alexander, Miss Constance Boush, Mrs. Frank L. King, Mrs. D. J. Howell and Miss L. J. Zimmerman. In the absence of delegates, Mrs. Nathan D. Eller, of Lynchburg, president of the Virginia Division, will represent the chapter.

At a recent meeting the delegate to the Suffolk Convention made her report calling particular attention to much discussed subject—The Home for Needy Confederate Women, in Richmond, and its need of substantial aid. The chapter decided to take this matter up during the coming season, and see what could be done to aid this home, that numbers amongst its inmates, the Confederate soldier's friend, "Capt." Sallie Tompkins, who gave her all to the cause she loved so well. She is now old and feeble, but still living in the glorious memories of the past.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH NOTES.
Mrs. Inez Ryan, of Washington, has been invited to give readings from Shakespeare and other writers at the meeting of the Westminster League next Friday, November 11, at 8 p. m. Miss Ryan is scarcely sixteen years of age, and yet she has such remarkable talent as a reader that Hickman, of the school of oratory, gives her the highest praise. Her readings will be but a part of the programme.

The Ministerial Association has agreed to hold services once each week at the Village Chapel on Gibson street, Tuesday night, and at the Payne street mission Thursday night. These services will be evangelistic, and will in a sense be a continuation of the work of the gospel wagon.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH.
Evangelistic services conducted by Rev. John E. Briggs will be held tomorrow as follows: 10 a. m.—Subject "The Man With a Will," 11 a. m.—"Seven Steps in Downfall of Peter," 2 p. m.—Mass meeting for men and boys; 7:30 p. m.—Subject, "Death."

Rev. John E. Briggs will deliver an address in church at 8 o'clock tomorrow afternoon. His subject will be "The Conversion of a Business Man at His Place of Business, at the Hour of Business."

There will be a meeting of the teachers of the Sunday School at 9:15 a. m. tomorrow.

EXCEEDINGLY GOOD.
An offering worthy of special mention is Robert Hildreth & Co., presenting his own rural protean playlet "A Four Leaf Clover." This little play contains the pith of a four-act drama and during its action Mr. Hildreth appears in four male characters, all widely different, changing all make-up and clothes and investing each character with a different personality.

The Opera House management is quite fortunate in securing this play. Tonight is the last opportunity you will have of seeing this lightning change artist in one of the cleverest pieces of vaudeville ever seen in this city. The pictures will be entirely new.

WASHINGTON STREET M. E. CHURCH, SOUTH.
Owing to the improvements being made in the auditorium of Washington street M. E. Church, South, it will be impossible for the congregation to worship there tomorrow. The morning and evening services therefore will be held in the Young People's Building. At night the installation of the newly elected Epworth League officers will take place. The Sunday School will occupy its regular quarters.

PAYNE WILL KEEP THE GUNS.
Commonwealth's Attorney C. V. Ford, of Fairfax county, yesterday sent a letter to Justice Wright informing the latter that all guns taken from persons found guilty of illegal gunning ceased to Game Warden A. J. Payne. The warden is adding to his stock weekly and in a short time may have a small arsenal at his Fairfax home.

FREE METHODIST CHURCH.
The quarterly meeting at the Free Methodist Church will begin next Friday evening at 7:30 o'clock and last over the following Sunday. There will be preaching every night, and an all day meeting Sunday with love feast at 2:30 p. m. Rev. D. J. Santmier and wife will be in charge. All are invited.

HOLY NAME SOCIETY.
A meeting of the Holy Name Society was held at 9 o'clock last night, when final arrangements were made for the participation of the organization in the parade at Washington tomorrow afternoon. The society will leave the corner of Duke and Royal streets in two special cars at 12:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon. Between 200 and 250 members will compose the visiting society, who will assemble at Lyceum Hall at 12 o'clock.

FOOTBALL.
The football game of the Baltimore Polytechnic Institute defeated the eleven of the Episcopal High School on the latter's grounds yesterday by a score of 12 to 0. The game was played in a sea of mud and water, which, with the high winds, made punting next to an impossibility.

CIRCUIT COURT FOR THE CITY.
The November term of the Circuit Court for the city will convene on Monday next, when it will adjourn until the 14th. Judge Barley will preside, as Judge Thornton has been designated to preside at the King George Court on Monday.

POSTPONED.
The annual Athletic Day exercises to be held at the Episcopal High School near this city this morning, were postponed till Monday, if fair, and if not, then to the first fair day thereafter. The rain and snow of Thursday night and yesterday made the grounds so wet and muddy that a postponement of the sports was decided upon.

PERSONAL.
Miss Mary Ball, of Richmond, who has been visiting friends in this city, left today for Baltimore.
Mrs. P. J. Dempsey has returned from a visit to her daughter, Mrs. J. A. Carter, in Norfolk.
Mrs. Charles F. Nash will leave Washington on the 15th to join her husband, Lieut. Charles F. Nash, U. S. R. C. S., in San Francisco, Cal.
Chief Goods of the police force, who has recently been confined to his home by tonsillitis, resumed his duties this morning.

LOCAL BREVITIES.
The will of the late Edgar Lyles was admitted to probate in the Circuit Court for the city in vacation today. The deceased leaves all his estate to his daughter, Miss Dora V. Lyles, who qualified as executrix.

John Gorham, of Alexandria county, was arrested this morning by acting Lieutenant Roberts at the instance of W. H. May & Son, charged with the violation of a contract.
The storm blew itself out last night, and today dawned with a clear sky and a crisp northwest wind. The wind was high at times during the night, although no serious damage is reported.

There was a market falling off in the volume of country produce exhibited in market this morning. Eggs were selling at 35 to 40 cents per dozen. Other articles showed but little variation in prices.

"We don't care a 'rinky dink' what our competitors think. It's what 'you' think of us that makes us sit up and take notice. Whenever you are hungry and somewhere in the innermost recesses of your being, there is an empty aching void, just think of those irresistibly delicious, Aunt Sausages and Puddings. They will change your look of hunger to an irresistible smile." Look up our big ad on this page and note our quotations on Hams and Shoulders.

A. L. I. TRIP TO LEEBURG.
The whole country around here (Leesburg) is talking about the trip of the Alexandria Light Infantry to Leesburg. This is what Capt. W. H. Gill, of Company H, First Virginia Regiment, writes Capt. Slaymaker of the Alexandria Light Infantry, in a letter received this morning.

The Alexandria Light Infantry will assemble at Armory Hall at 5:45 Monday afternoon and will leave the W. & O. station, corner Fairfax and Princess streets, at 6:30 p. m. Returning will leave Leesburg by special train about 12 o'clock, arriving in Alexandria about 1 o'clock a. m. This special train will enable a great many friends of the Alexandria Light Infantry to take the trip with the local guardsmen and return the same evening. Capt. Slaymaker expects to take with him about 50 men and a band of about 14 pieces; also a number of the company's friends. The fare will be $1.50 for the round trip.

COMMISSIONERS AND JUDGES APPOINTED.
The City Electoral Board met last night and elected the following commissioners and judges for the election next Tuesday:

First ward—Oscar F. Phillips, commissioner; Charles W. Mander and Charles P. Waller, judges.
Second ward—Theodore Cook, commissioner; Lawrence P. Clark and Charles M. Hancock, judges.

Third ward—Frank E. Penn, commissioner; Wm. T. Hinken and Jos. B. Ewald, judges.
Fourth ward—Mark R. Norris, commissioner; Eugene Igo and John E. Brenner, judges.

All clerks, who will be appointed by the judges, must be qualified voters of the city.

CHARTER.
A charter has been granted to the Morrill Moulds Corporation of Alexandria, Milton D. Morrill, president; John Leadbeater, secretary and treasurer, both of Alexandria, and A. R. Serven, of Washington, D. C. Capital: $100,000; minimum, $10,000. Objects: General real estate, hotel, patent mould business and construction business.

THANKSGIVING SERVICE.
The Union Thanksgiving service this year will be held at the Methodist Protestant Church on north Washington street, and the sermon will be preached by Rev. W. F. Watson. The offering, as usual, will be for the Alexandria Hospital.

DEATH OF AN ALEXANDRIAN.
Mr. Nathaniel Boush, a native of this city, died in Lorton, Oklahoma, yesterday. The deceased leaves a widow and two children. He was a son of the late Nathaniel Boush, and up to a few years ago he resided in Alexandria.

Efforts to Settle Strike.
New York, Nov. 5.—A final effort is being made this afternoon by Mayor Gaynor to settle the strike of the express drivers. The mayor held a conference in the city hall with Valentine Hoffman and William Ashton, the strike leaders. It had been expected that the vice presidents of the several express companies whose men are out would attend this meeting, but they were in a wrangle in the rooms of the United States Express Company, and did not show up.

The mayor went over the situation with the labor leaders, and secured from them their final word as to the concessions they were willing to make. The mayor then got into communication with the officials of the express companies and planned to spend most of the afternoon trying to arrange terms whereby the strike would be declared off.

Officials of the Adams Express Company also opened negotiations with their former employees in an attempt to settle the strike independently.

Despite the fact that Mayor Gaynor has ruled that the strikebreakers must secure licenses from the city, the companies refuse to comply. They say their business is interstate commerce, pure and simple, and the city had no authority over their men.

While the leaders were trying to end the strike there was a renewal of rioting in various sections of the city.

A. B. Hepburn, president of the Chase National Bank, of New York, and a lifelong republican has sent a letter to the democratic committee in which he says he will vote for Dix.

GENERAL STRIKE IN SPAIN.

Country Famine-Stricken and People on Verge of Uprising.

Madrid, via Hendaye, Nov. 5.—The general strike proclaimed several days ago has become so serious in the commercial and manufacturing districts that the government is showing more alarm than it did over the outbreaks of last year. Thousands of workers are out.

In Sabadell, where the general strike order was obeyed almost to a man, there is famine and the discontented and starving people are on the verge of uprising. Troops are being poured into the district. Senor Sagasta, Minister of the Interior, has made ineffective attempts to end the strike.

Barcelona, always the hotbed of revolution, is where the government expects the outbreaks, and troops are being sent from all portions of the kingdom into that city. All leaves of absence from the army have been recalled, and the loyal regiments are being recruited up to their full strength.

Will Be Sued for Damages.
New York, Nov. 5.—Edward T. Rosenheimer, the millionaire needle importer, who was last night acquitted of the charge of murdering Miss Grace Hough by running down with his automobile, will soon be called upon to meet suits for civil damages.

Attorneys for both George Fadden and Miss Anna McCabe, who were driving with Miss Hough and both of whom were badly injured, said today that they would bring suit at once. It is also expected that Walter B. Hough, father of the dead girl, will ask damages.

Cavalleri III.
Paris, Nov. 5.—Mlle. Lina Cavalleri (Mrs. Robert Chanler) is very ill today and has been compelled to cancel her engagement to sing the leading role tonight in Thais at the Opera House.

While it is not believed her condition is grave, it is probable it will be some time before the singer is able to reappear. She is suffering from a severe cold and general weakness following her recent operation for appendicitis.

Thompson Will Appeal.
San Francisco, Nov. 5.—Robert Thompson, convicted of second degree murder in causing the death of Eva Swan, a school teacher whose corpse was found buried in a trunk under a vacant house here, is planning today to appeal from the judgment of the trial court.

Nurse Messerschmidt, who was taken into custody at the same time as Thompson, testified that after the girl died following an illegal operation, Thompson, who went under the name of Dr. James Grant, stuffed the body into a trunk and buried it under a house on Eureka street.

A Good Meal
It is a noticeable fact that beer is becoming more and more commonly used as a meal time beverage, particularly in the home. There are several good reasons for this: It "fits in" well with solid foods. It is a good appetizer. It helps digestion. Many drink it in place of coffee, because they find the latter injurious to them.
HOFBRAU BEER
Is a light brew with a full, rich flavor that finds great favor as a table beverage. The bottled product is most convenient for home use.
